Wilmer C. Fields Awards Competition

Recognizing the best image-makers and storytellers in the Baptist Communicators Association

The 2009 Wilmer C. Fields Awards Competition

Wilmer C. Fields was a pioneer in the area of Christian journalism and public relations. He served from 1959-87 at the Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee in the area of public relations. He was responsible for creating Baptist Press, a network of Baptist journalism professionals that became highly respected in secular and religious circles. He is a lifetime member and currently resides with his wife Lawanna in Nashville.

THE FRANK BURKHALTER AWARD FOR SIGNIFICANT ACHIEVEMENT IN RELIGIOUS NEWS WRITING

Frank Burkhalter became the publicity director for the Southern Baptist Seventy-five Million Campaign in 1919. When the Cooperative Program was launched in 1925, Burkhalter became its first publicity director. From 1929 until he retired in 1945, he was professor of journalism at Baylor University.

Special thanks to the following for their help in making this year's Wilmer C. Fields Awards Competition a success:

- ◆ Our judges for their tireless efforts of professional critique and evaluation of each entry
- ◆ The Communication Services Team at the Georgia Baptist Convention for their assistance with the judging process, design of printed pieces, and development of the presentation
- ◆ Margaret Dempsey-Colson, BCA Administrative Coordinator
- ◆ All BCA members who submitted entries for their overall excellence

THE ALBERT McCLELLAN AWARD FOR SIGNIFICANT ACHIEVEMENT IN PRINT MEDIA AND DESIGN

Albert McClellan, a charter BPR (now BCA) member, served on the staff of the Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee for 32 years in several capacities, including public relations secretary. McClellan also served as president of BPR during its formative years.

THE DIANE REASONER AWARD FOR EXCEPTIONAL ACHIEVEMENT IN INTERACTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

Diane Reasoner served for 20 years on the Communications staff of the Georgia Baptist Convention before being killed in a tragic automobile accident in April 2007. She was instrumental in creating the Convention's first web site and the first Internet radio station among all Baptist state conventions. A BCA member since 1988, she received numerous BCA awards and served as the organization's president in 2001-02. She also served as the professional development coordinator in 1999-2000 and as membership chair in 1994-95. The Award was created in 2002 as the Exceptional Achievement Award in Interactive Communications and renamed The Diane Reasoner Award for exceptional achievement in Interactive Communications by vote of the membership in 2008.
